

YUSTE
PEDRO I
SOLERA GRAN RESERVA
D.O. BRANDY DE JEREZ

Sanlúcar native Francisco Yuste has sold Manzanilla in the provinces of Cádiz and Córdoba all his life. Following thirty years of dramatic acquisitions protecting and promoting the region's vinicultural history, Yuste is a prominent feature of Jerez's vanguard.

In 1991 Yuste purchased historic Bodega Santa Ana in Sanlúcar's Barrio Bajo, winning him ownership of Santa Ana's famed centenarian solera. Yuste added Bodega Los Ángeles in Barrio Alto in 2001, immediately restoring it to Manzanilla production and developing it to refresh his Santa Ana criaderas (solera tiers). Filling out a business structure so he could create truly extraordinary wines, Yuste acquired Bodega Miraflores in 2010 as production base. In 2015 Yuste's acquisition of the classic Aurora brand provided impetus for export launch, followed by his 2016 purchase of Herederos de Argüeso (with its long-revered Manzanilla, San León).

With a wealth of quintessential Sherry bottlings of riveting quality and a remarkable library of historic soleras, Francisco Yuste has assembled one of the finest operations in Jerez history. These wines are at the forefront of Jerez excellence today, thrilling even the most jaded Sherry lovers.

PEDRO I Solera Gran Reserva Brandy de Jerez

This revered solera Brandy de Jerez was created from a Palomino brandy pot-distilled in 1947 and aged for over 50 years in botas previously containing Amontillado and Oloroso. Yuste withdraws only a few hundred bottles each year. Elegant and dry with exquisite persistence.
